TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

The Irish.

Chicago, 24.—Patrick Egan, treasurer of the land league, arrived here to-day and will remain several days in consultation with prominent Irish leaders.

London, 24.—The Times points out that the jury which yesterday at Belfast rendered a verdict of guilty upon Nugent and twelve other members of the Armagh Assassination Society, who, when charged with conspiracy to murder, accepted as authentic the diary kept by the plotters, in which it was recorded that a man had sworn at the request of the land league, to kill a landlord named Brooks.

The Times says the evidence on the part of government adduced at the trial, certainly tends to show that the alleged representation of Washington with regard to the hostile speeches and writings of Irish Americans.

The Full Mail Gazette's Dublin correspondent says, the person referred to as "number one," by James Carey in his testimony at the hearing of the assassination prisoners, is known to be in Mexico, beyond the reach of English authorities.

New York, 24.—John McCafferty publishes a card, in which he says his attention has been called to a communication in Redpath's Weekly, written by Leonard Robinson, formerly of the Tribune, wherein some allusion is made to McCafferty in connection with number one. He says he posted Robinson before the Phoenix Park murder in very opprobrious terms.

Chatham, 24.—In consequence of the report of a hostile project on the part of Fenians against the naval station here, a boom has been constructed across the dock basin, and the furloughs granted to policemen have been stopped.

The New Tariff Law.

Washington, 24.—An official letter from the secretary's office, treasury department, lays down the following rules concerning the enforcement of section 7 of the new tariff law. The mere fact that "invoices and entries include nondutiable charges, does not thereby render such charges liable to duty, and in proportion duty should not be levied on charges and commissions when they can be properly ascertained. Where, however, an invoice of goods declares they have been delivered to a purchaser on an exporting vessel free of all charges to him, the value stated of the invoice must be taken as that upon which the duties shall be levied, provided of course the appraiser makes no advance thereon, the goods actually remaining in bonded warehouse or public store, when the seventh section of the act referred to took effect it may be considered as entitled to a re-adjustment of the duty under said section without regard to protest, it being the duty of the department and its officers to enforce the law as enacted by congress. The department does not deem it wise or within its authority to enlarge the scope of the act so as to extend the provisions of section 10, in connection with section 7, to goods not in public store or bonded warehouse when the act took effect and which were imported prior to that date. Goods imported prior to the act taking effect and which remained in general order, are to be considered in bonded warehouse and the rule before laid down applies accordingly.

The "Passion."

New York, 24.—A rumor is current that the "Temple" in which Salmi More has hopes to produce the "Passion," would be dedicated on Easter Sunday by an ordained minister, thus enabling More to proceed without a license. More says such a course had often been suggested to him, and that it would dispose of the difficulty regarding a license, and that many ministers had volunteered to perform the dedication services, "but," he added, "I do not intend to avail myself of the subterfuge. Being thoroughly satisfied I am entitled to a license, I shall contest the matter until I obtain one, although the dedication of the temple would save a license fee of $500. A dress rehearsal of the "Passion" will be given to invited guests on Friday night. Since Monday there have been rehearsals nightly, in preparation for the dress rehearsal. My intention is, when the license is granted to me, to play the "Passion" one week for the benefit of the Ohio flood sufferers, and I am confident a large amount could thus be raised for them."

Cincinnati, 24.—An agent of Salmi More has been here several days quietly trying to arrange for the production of the "Passion Play." He made application for Music Hall for two months, beginning on May 25. This afternoon the trustees gave him a simple refusal, giving no reason for their action.

Victoria.

London, 24.—The Manchester Guardian says the Queen, who heretofore attended the parish church at Osborne, is arranging for the establishment of a private chapel there. It says the change is due partly to the increasing years of her majesty, and also to the precautions forced upon all prominent persons by the Irish troubles.

The Court Circular says the weather alone prevented the Queen driving out before yesterday. The swelling of her majesty's knee continues to subside, and she was almost entirely recovered from the effects of her recent fall.

London, 24.—The Queen's knee is still a little swollen. She ordered a carriage to-day for the purpose of taking a drive, but finally concluded not to go. Her majesty will not, as was contemplated, go to Sandringham next week to visit the Prince of Wales. She will, however, in the latter part of the week, leave Windsor Castle for her residence at Osborne, Isle of Wight.

Socialists.

Paris, 24.—Three soldiers of the 108th regiment, who were arrested on the charge of socialism, have been found guilty and sentenced to join regiments in distant parts of Algeria.

London, 24.—Two anarchists named Gaiz and Dubois, have arrived here. Their object is to arrange for a great conference of socialists in London. Dubois left Paris to avoid arrest.

A meeting of the English revolutionary league has been held here to consider the question of holding a great international convention of revolutionists. The president of the meeting said government officials will now recognize the fact that dynamite is an important factor in political life. It was resolved to invite Louis M. Thibault and other prominent socialists to the proposed convention.

Bank Taxes.

Washington, 24.—The Attorney-General has commenced the investigation of the question submitted to him by the treasury department whether banks, national and private, are liable to pay any taxes after January 1st, last, except the tax on circulation. The comptroller of the currency, who is of the opinion that the term "due and payable" refers only to taxes due and payable in January 1st, and not after that, does not think taxes can be collected from banks for January and February. The United States treasurer and collector of internal revenue, charged with the collection of these taxes, are, however, of the opinion that the taxes should be collected for January and February. The first controller of the Treasury is said to be of the opinion that the taxes cannot be collected.

Demorpling With Polk.

Nashville, 24.—The Senate adopted a resolution authorizing a settlement with ex-Treasurer Polk on the basis of $100,000 bonds of the Bank of Tennessee within ten days, $75,000 internal improvement bonds, with $25,000 accumulated interest, which bonds with interest shall be received as $25,000 and $75,000 genuine notes, issued by the Bank of Tennessee to be paid within ninety days upon the deficit of Polk, for the sum of $250,000, which when paid shall relieve the sureties of Polk, and the assets attached in the hands of J. W. Childers, the balance to be paid in current money, genuine issue of the Bank of Tennessee, providing nothing in the act shall prevent the prosecution of Polk.

Booth's Theater.

Washington, 24.—Referring to an advertisement that the scenery and properties of Booth's theatre would be sold for delivery on and after May 1st, John Stetson said it had been finally decided at the expiration of his lease, on May 1st, to alter the building into stores. When the owners of the estate decided to sell the building Stetson tried to purchase it, offering $475,000, but he was outbid and the property passed into the hands of James D. Fish, president of the Marine National Bank.

The Florence Dixie Affair.

London, 24.—Capt. O'Shea, home rule member of Parliament for county Clare, has notified Sir Wm. Harcourt, home secretary, that when the Commons assemble after the Easter holidays he will ask whether Lady Florence Dixie hoaxed the public by the invasion of a letter from King Odoardo, and whether, as a result of the inquiry into the alleged assault upon her at Windsor, the police have concluded that Florence is an impostor.
